

Beasts I-spy

Welcome to Rochester Cathedral. See if you can spot where these photos were taken. The location of each picture is shown on the plan.

Name _____

1. I am a creature you no longer see, so look up now or you'll miss me!

I have spotted the unicorn.

2. I am proud to represent John the Evangelist so please notice me.

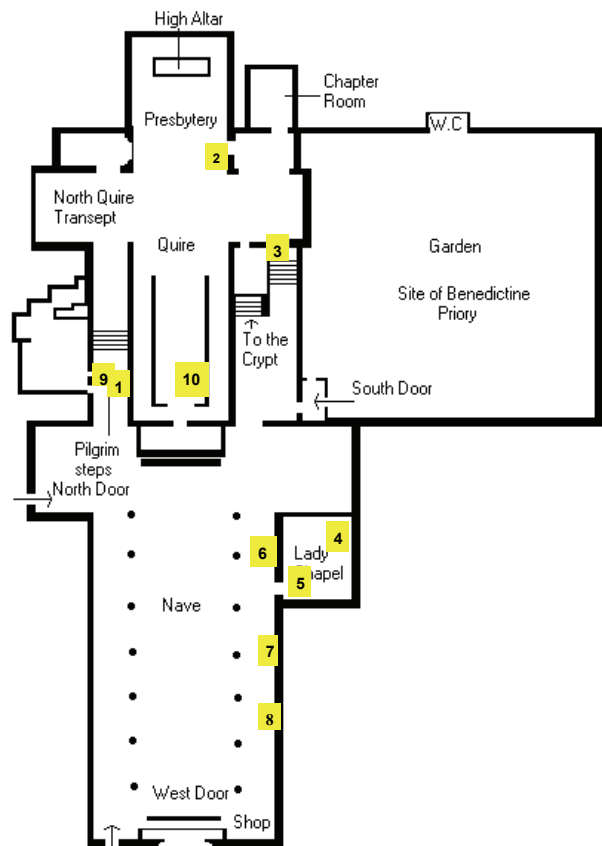

I have spotted the eagle.

3. I walk on land and travel the seas but raise your eyes to see me.

I have spotted the horse.

The numbers on this plan will help you find the right places.

4. We were there when Jesus was born, so look for a stable in the window to see us.

I have spotted both donkey and cow.

5. St George has put an end to me, so look at his feet to see where I am.

I have spotted the dragon.

6. If you cannot hear me hiss perhaps you will see me on this shield.

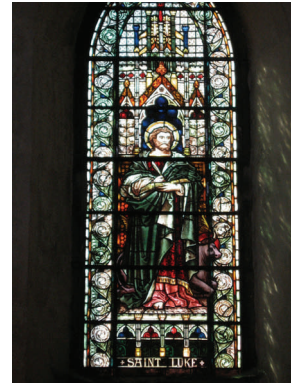

I have spotted the serpent.

7. I stand tall to support this shield, so you'll need to stand tall to find me.

I have spotted the stag.

8. This man wrote about Jesus' life and death and I'm sitting at his feet to represent sacrifice.

I have spotted the bull.

9. Remember number one ... well I can still be found! I am real, so look up to me.

I have spotted the lion.

10. What fine nails I have! Be sure to find me among all these coats of arms.

I have spotted the griffin.
